Borbála PARAJDI:

SME digitalisation grants

Room: 230 - 16:15-16:45

Digital transition is a key element for the EU's economic development and strategic autonomy. Consequently, the EU has established a series of programs and policies to ensure digital transformation. In Romania, these policies translate to a series of financing programs, which aim to facilitate the adaptation of our society and economy to the digital age. Let's explore together the financing opportunities that SMEs can benefit from in the field of digitalisation!
