Letter of Invitation

Dear Madam/Sir ,

It is a great pleasure for us to announce that the 1st Congress on Sustainable and Innovative Solutions in the Agricultural- and Food Industry (SISAF'23) - One Health approach will be held from September 4-5, 2023 in Debrecen, Hungary.

On the occasion of the 155th anniversary of the foundation of agricultural higher education in Debrecen, Hungary, the Faculty of Agriculture, Food Science and Environmental Management of the University of Debrecen is launching a series of conferences (organised biannually), in a traditional manner, each time with current agri-food topics. The special theme of the conference in 2023 is related to the 'One Health' conceptual approach. Besides the plenary session, we intend to give floor to young researchers and PhD students to publish their work as poster presentation.

If you or your colleagues are interested and wish to participate, please send the filled application form and the abstract of the poster (template attached) to mekdekania@agr.unideb.hu by August 16.

Look forward to hear from you soon,

Sincerely Yours,

Prof. Imre Holb
Chairman

Prof. Laszlo Stundl
dean of Faculty
